Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-128)

WIOA Final Rules published in the Federal Register, Vol. 81, No. 161, dated August 19, 2016, Sections 680.760, 680.770, 680.210, 680.320, 683.255, 683.285

Purpose:

The purpose of this Field Guidance Memorandum (FGM) is to inform the Greater Peninsula Workforce Board's (GPWB) Staff and Program Operators of all aspects pertaining to the federal Equal Opportunity (EO) and Nondiscrimination requirements. This FGM will provide individuals with a better understanding of EO and assist in making important personnel decisions.

Policy Statement:

The GPWB affirms its commitment to the policy of assuring nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunity for all in the conduct of programs funded under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-128). It is against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, or political affiliation or belief, or, against any beneficiary of, applicant to, or participant in programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, on the basis of the individual's citizenship status or participation in any WIOA Title I- financially assisted program or activity.

This policy applies to all phases of employment including job structuring and upward mobility, recruitment, selection, training, compensation, benefits, layoffs, transfer administration relative to the GPWB's staff, the staffs of Program Operators, recipients and to participants in WIOA program activities.

Documentation:

- A. Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, which provides that no person shall, on the basis of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving financial assistance from DOL, 42 U.S.C. Section 200d;
- B. Federal Regulations, 29 CFR, Section 37 - Implementation of Nondiscrimination and Equal Opportunity requirements of the WIOA which requires that a recipient* provide initial and continuing notice that it does not discriminate against applicants, eligible applicants, participants, applicants for employment, employees, union or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the recipients, and members of the public;

- C. The Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended which provides that no person shall, on the basis of age, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving financial assistance from DOL, 42 U.S.C. Section 6102;
- D. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, which provides that no otherwise qualified person shall, solely on the basis of physical or mental handicap, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving financial assistance from DOL, 29 U.S.C. Section 794;
- E. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, which provides that no person shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any education or training program or activity receiving financial assistance from DOL, 20 U.S.C., Section 1681;
- F. Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-128), as amended, which provides it is against the law for this recipient of Federal financial assistance to discriminate on the following bases: against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, or political affiliation or belief, or against any beneficiary of, applicant to, or participant in programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, on the basis of the individual's citizenship status or participation in any WIOA Title I- financially assisted program or activity.
- G. Americans with Disability Act (ADA) of 1990 -The American with Disability Act prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities in employment, transportation, public accommodation, communications, and activities of state and local government. Telecommunications relay services must be available. In terms of employment, the law defines a "qualified individual with a disability" as a person with a disability who can perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation.
- H. Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965

Nondiscrimination and Equal Opportunity Policy*Field Guidance Memorandum 103*Issue Date: 1/3/2017*Updated: 11/13/2019*Definitions:

- A. Equal Opportunity - is an employer's posture that all personnel activities will be conducted in a manner, which will assure equal opportunity for all. Such activities will be based on individual merit and fitness of applicants and employees related to the specific jobs and without regard to non-merit factors such as race, sex, age, national origin, color, religion, handicapped disability, political affiliation or belief.

- B. Affirmative Action - is a planned, aggressive, coherent management program to provide for equal employment opportunity. The Affirmative Action Plan (AAP) is the written document through which management assures equal opportunity. It is a result-oriented instrument designed to achieve equal opportunity rather than simple policy assurance of non-discrimination.

- C. Recipient - means any entity to which Federal financial assistance under any title of WIOA is extended, either directly or through the Governor or through another recipient (including any successor, assignee, or transferee or a recipient), but excluding the ultimate beneficiaries of the WIOA-funded program or activity and the Governor. Recipient includes, but is not limited to: Job Corps Centers and Center operators (excluding federally-operated Job Corps Centers), State Employment Security Agencies, State-level agencies that administer WIOA funds, LWIOA grant recipients, and Program Operators, as well as National Program recipients.

Implementation:

- A. The GPWB's Deputy Director, will have the overall responsibility for the Equal Employment Opportunity Program. The Program Support Manager will be the GPWB's EO Officer. The EO Officer's foremost responsibility or function is to inform the Vice President of the EO posture of the organization. To do this, the EO Officer will have at least three broad responsibilities:
  - (1) To advise and assist Executive Director, WIOA Title I Program Manager and Program Operators on EO policy and EO assurance responsibilities;

  - (2) To perform periodic reviews of all activities and programs within LWDA #14, and;

  - (3) To assure that recommended corrective action measures are followed through, as appropriate.

B. Additional responsibilities of the GPWB's EO Officer are to Implement this program.

- (1) Initiate and conduct pre-award, post-award compliance reviews and investigates grievances against GPWB and/or Program Operators.
- (2) Monitor for compliance in EO standards.
- (3) Review and analyze management data and operating reports for initiating and/or recommended appropriate action.
- (4) Provide expertise and technical assistance in the reconciliation and negotiation of EO matters.
- (5) Provide training and technical assistance to staff components relating to EO responsibilities and programs.
- (6) Develop and maintain liaison with federal, state, or local EO units and community based organizations. Keep the VCCS EO Officer informed of information pertaining to EO complaints and violations.
- (7) Review planned advertisements to ensure the inclusion of the EO statement in such advertisements as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights as amended.
- (8) Maintain a compliant log.
- (9) Upon request, issue complaint forms to facilitate filing complaint in proper format.
- (10) Provide a written determination of the complaint and offer resolution within 90 days of the date on which the complaint was filed.
- (11) Determine if a complaint falls outside the coverage of the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions of WIOA. The EO Officer will notify the complainant in writing that he or she does not have jurisdiction over complaint.

Nondiscrimination and Equal Opportunity Policy*Field Guidance Memorandum 103*Issue Date: 1/3/2017
Updated: 11/13/2019

Where possible the complaint will be referred to the appropriate federal, state or local authority.

- (12) If an investigation results in a reasonable cause finding, the EO Officer will seek concurrence from the State EO Officer. The State review of all findings that a violation occurred must be accomplished within 30 days. If the State EO Officer concurs, the EO Officer will issue a written determination for each issue raised in the complaint, a statement of either the recipient's decision or the way the parties resolved the issue.
- (13) When a no cause finding is made, the complainant will be notified in writing and advised that they can file a complaint within 30 days to the Director, Civil Rights Center.
- (14) Complainants will be provided an initial written notice that contains an acknowledgement that GPWB has received the complaint and notify the complainant that they have the right to be represented.
- (15) A written statement of the issues will be provided to the complainant that includes a list of the issues raised in the complaint and for each issue, a statement whether GPWB will accept the issue for investigation or reject the issue, and the reasons for each rejection.
- (16) GPWB will have 30 days for fact-finding and/or investigation of complaints.
- (17) GPWB will have a period of 15 days to attempt resolution of complaint through mediation.

Grievance Procedures:

Pursuant to Section 188 of the WIOA Regulations (Public Law 113-128), all WIOA program participants have a right to file a grievance. Grounds for a grievance involve individual discrimination based on against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, or political affiliation or belief, or, against any beneficiary of, applicant to, or participant in programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, on the basis of the individual's citizenship status or participation in any WIOA Title I- financially assisted program or activity.

If a participant thinks that he/she has been subjected to discrimination under a WIOA-funded program or activity, a complaint can be filed within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with the Program Operators' Equal Opportunity (EO) officer, or the state's EO Officer or the participant may file complaint directly with the Director, Civil Rights Center (CRC). A complaint may be filed by the individual or on the behalf of the individual by an authorized representative. It is recommended that the complaint be filed on GPWB's Complaint Form.

Program Operators will make every effort to resolve complaints using their own informal mediation procedures at their level. If a resolution cannot be achieved, the complainant has the option of contacting the Greater Peninsula Workforce Board's EO officer or going to the State-Level EO Officer of the VEC or directly to the Director, Civil Rights Center in Washington, D. C.

Procedure If a participant believes that he/she has a complaint regarding a violation of his/her civil rights, he/she can take the following steps:

Step 1: Go to the GPWBs EO Officer within 180 days of the alleged violation and bring the problem to that organization's attention. The GPWB has 90 days to respond.

General:

- A. All GPWB internal time limits for grievances will be strictly adhered to unless it is not possible due to schedule limitations. The GPWB's Executive Director will approve/disapprove any requests for extension based on the facts of the case. The Director of the Civil Rights Center is the only person who can grant extensions on time limits regarding discrimination complaints.
- B. A copy of the grievance procedure and civil rights form will be given to each participant enrolled in WIOA activities for their review and signature. The original copy of this form will be placed in their participant folder.
- C. The GPWB's EO Officer is Ms. Shannon Trochuck, 757-826-3327 or strochuck@vcwpeninsula.com. If you have any questions, please discuss them with your Career Planner first and Ms. Trochuck later if the participant needs additional information. For hearing impaired, the Virginia Telecommunications Relay Service is a service that relays a conversation between a person with a speech or hearing disability using a TTY (Text Telephone) and a hearing person using a regular telephone. To reach Virginia Relay simply dial 711. Additionally, Virginia Career Works – Hampton Center has a Text Telephone located in its telephone bank and the number to this telephone is 757-766-4928.

- D. Complaints not resolved at the Program Operator's level will be referred directly to this office for resolution. If a suitable solution is not attained at this level, the next step is to forward the complaint to the State-Level EO Officer at VEC and then if a suitable solution is not attained at this level, the next step is to forward to the Director, Civil Rights Center, Washington, D.C. Ms. Trochuck is available as the technical advisor for both the Program Operator and the complainant. WIOA participants, Board staff and Program Operators should feel free to contact Ms. Trochuck for advice should a need arise.

- E. To communicate the discrimination complaint policy, "Equal Opportunity Is The Law" posters in English and Spanish shall be placed in prominent locations which are accessible to applicants, eligible applicants, participants, terminees, applicants for employment and employees, applicants for funding and other interested parties. The poster contains a nondiscrimination and equal opportunity statement, as well as information about filing a complaint.

- F. The USDOL required EO Tag Line, "Equal Opportunity Employer/Program - auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities" must be included on websites, recruitment brochures, and other materials communicated in written or electronic format. Also, a TDD number must be indicated when a telephone number is indicated. The tag line does not have to be included on business cards, envelopes, and letterhead. However, if the letterhead indicates a telephone number, a TDD number must be indicated.

- G. Babel Notice - Section 188 of WIOA requires WIOA Grant Recipients to indicate in appropriate languages that language assistance is available for all communications of vital information, in either hard copy or electronic form, which are issued. For this purpose, the determination of "vital" will be the responsibility of the GPWB. Consistent with the EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW Posters for the local area this Policy is issued in Spanish as well as English. Individuals needing language assistance should contact Ms. Shannon Trochuck, GPWB's EO Officer at 757-826-3327 or strochuck@vcwpeninsula.com.

A Language Identification Card should be utilized (see attached) to assist program staff in identifying what particular language a customer is speaking. The GPWB recommends that the Card be distributed to all staff members.
